

ROYSE AND HARRIS SENT TO PRISON

Samuel Royse, Third One of Trio
Arrested Near Mays Sunday, Said
Not to be Implicated

FREE PENDING INQUIRY

John Royse and Allen Harris Sentenced For 2 to 21 Years on Conspiracy Trial

John Royse, age 38, and Allen
Harris, age 23, Carthage men arrested early Sunday morning at Mays, each pleaded guilty this morning in the circuit court on the charge of conspiracy to commit a felony, and each was fined $25 and costs and given sentence of from 2 to 14 years.

Samuel Royse, the third member of the arrested party, was permitted to go without bail, pending a further investigation as to the extent in which he was implicated with the other two.

Sheriff Hunt was preparing this afternoon to take Harris to the reformatory at Pendleton, to begin serving his sentence, and Royse will serve his term at the state prison in Michigan City.

These two men shouldered the blame for the affair, according to the officers. Royse, who was released pending an investigation, stated that he was home when the other two were at Mays stealing gasoline from Jesse Wilson, and when abandoned their machine, they went to Royse to borrow his machine.

According to the story told them
the officers, Royse would not let them have his machine, as they told him that the car in which they were riding would not run, and they wanted to borrow his car to bring it in to Carthage. It will be recalled that when the men were caught at the Wilson home, they ran and abandoned their car, and according to the story told the officers, they wanted see Royse to obtain his machine and go after the car they had left.

Royse wouldn't give them his car, he said, but considered to drive it for them, and the three came into Mays early Sunday morning, and were caught by a posse waiting along the roadside. The men all agreed that Royse was not connected with the affair, only in the part of being innocently trapped.

He also did not carry a weapon,
but the other two did. The portion of the still was found in his house, although he said it belonged to his brother, John Royse, who also admitted this, stating that he had served a year in Ohio for bootlegging.

In the meantime officers will conduct an investigation concerning the conduct of Royse. Several Carthage people made recommendations that his reputation was good, and these facts also will be proved before final disposition of his case is made.

FARLOW MUST SERVE A TERM

Petition of Rush County Man For Rehearing is Denied

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 10—The supreme court today denied a petition for a rehearing in the case of John D. Farlow vs the state of Indiana, appealed from the Rush circuit court.

The case against John D. Farlow, Anderson township farmer, has been in the supreme court for more than two years. He was found guilty in the local circuit court on the charge of arson, and sentenced to serve a term in prison. A motion for a new trial was overruled here, and his case was appealed to the higher court. Several months ago the higher court affirmed the decision here, and the defendant filed a further motion asking for a rehearing, which today was refused, according to the Indianapolis dispatch.

LOCKJAW FATAL TO 8 YEAR OLD FOLEY BOY

Youth Living Near Clarksburg Dies
From Effects of Wound Caused by
Stable Fork

IN HOSPITAL FOR TREATMENT

Jason Clarence Foley, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willim Foley, died Tuesday afternoon
shortly after four o'clock at the Dr.
Sexton hospital in this city, where he was brought the day before suffering with a severe case of lockjaw.

Little hopes for his recovery were held out at the hospital from the time that he arrived. The little boy two weeks ago was playing around the stable at their home, northeast of Clarksburg, when he stepped on a rusty fork, with one of the prongs piercing his foot. The lockjaw complications developed, and as a last resort he was brought to the hospital here Monday afternoon.

The body was removed this morning to the family home, located near the Wesleyan chapel, northeast of Clarksburg, and services will be held at the church probably Thursday afternoon, but the time was not definitely decided upon today.

The child was one of 13 children of Mr. and Mrs. Foley, two of whom preceded him in death, leaving ten brothers and sisters and the parents
as the survivors.

LIBRARY TO OBSERVE "HOME COMING WEEK"

Persons Having Books Overdue Will
be Permitted to Return Them
Without Paying Fines

TO CONTINUE ALL NEXT WEEK

A "Home Coming Week" was announced today by the Rushville public library. It will be held next week and during that time no fines will be charged for overdue books.

The "Home coming party" will not be restricted to the hours the library is open, but will be continuous, twenty-four hours a day, every day in the week.

A large box to hold the books will be placed outside the door at the north entrance of the court house
and every person who has a book that is past due at the library, may drop it in the box without making any report to the librarian and their record will be clear.

Parents are urged to see that children return books during this period, if they are past due. Children are the worst offenders, it is said, because they are careless and in so many instances parents do not insist on them returning books to the library.

Miss Mary Sleeth, city librarian, stated that this will be positively the last opportunity for any library patrons to return books without paying a fine, and for this reason it is regarded as advisable to take advantage of the opportunity.

CRAZY WITH THE HEAT

AMERICAN HOSPITAL AT CANTON HIT BY SHELLS

Consul General Douglas Protests
Against Firing on Foreigners
Without Results

NO CASUALTIES REPORTED

(By United Press)

Washington, June 10—The Canton-American hospital at Canton has been struck by shells in the fighting between Yunnanese and Cantonese troops, Consul General
Jenkins reported to the state department today.

Jenkins has protested against the firing on foreigners although none has been hurt. American women and children have moved from the danger zone on Jenkins' advice, who has warned all foreigners to avoid the fighting area.

Describing the progress of the civil war, the department on the basis of Jenkins' report made the following announcement today:

"Firing continued with growing intensity, the opposing troops firing
at each other across the waterway, dividing the city proper from Honan Island. Gun boats loyal to the government frequently run through this waterway."

Shanghai, June 10—Coastal and river traffic has ceased here as far as the British and Japanese are concerned. Their boats are tied up unable to turn a wheel, because of seamen's union order to seamen not to work on British and Japanese lines. As a result of the tie-up only a few Chinese craft are operating.
Warning has been radioed to sea to other boats to shun Shanghai.

French Premier Uses An Airplane to Reach Front

(Copyright, 1925, by U. P.)
Premier Painleve of France today inaugurated a new era in statesmanship.

Dashing out of Toulouse, soon after dawn by airplane, he soared forth to Morocco to obtain first hand information on the French campaign against the Rifians.

A. L. Bradford, United Press Paris manager accompanied the premier to Toulouse, and will follow him by airplane to the Moroccan front.

Before stepping into the airplane that is now bearing him to the war front, the French premier outlined to Bradford, in an interview, his present policy as to Morocco. He wants peace in Morocco but only after Abdel Krim has ceased stirring the Moslem world against France.

Premier Painleve also revealed that he wants and expects a Franco-Spanish accord which will be prepared to tell Krim what peace terms will be acceptable. He proposed a joint blockade against arms and food supplies to the Rifians.

INTEREST CENTERS IN GROUP BANK MEETING

Bankers Will be Called on to Take Stand Regarding Iowa Plan to
Curb Bank Banditry

LOCAL BANKERS ARE GOING

Rushville banks, as well as other banks in Rush county, will be represented at the group meeting of the Indiana Bankers association at the Amuse-U park west of Greensburg Thursday, when the question of endorsing the Iowa plan for protection against bank robberies will be considered.

Every other group in the state has approved the project, which has reduced the bank holdups in Iowa,
and great interest is being shown throughout the state in the probable action of the local group.

Some time ago, the Iowa plan was first proposed, Rushville bankers expressed themselves as having little faith in the plan to arm deputy sheriffs to protect banks, on the theory that they would never be available when most needed.

J. V. Carpenter of Brazil, president of the Indiana association, is very enthusiastic over the plan, however. He is quoted as saying that "We intend to make it hot for bank bandits in a very short time."

"The Carbon bank robbery Monday, the fourth in Indiana this month in which the bandits have escaped in every case, emphasizes the need for immediate action to curb banditry," Carpenter said.

"All but one group of the Indiana
Bankers Association has adopted
the Iowa plan which has proved over 90 percent successful. Organization of vigilance committees radiating from each center and located so as to intercept escape of bandits will soon check banditry in Indiana."

SHARP CONTRAST IN WEATHER

Unseasonably Cold Weather To Continue, Weather Man Says

In sharp contrast to the killing heat of last week, Rush county was shivering in unseasonably cold weather today. The drop in temperature came during the night and this morning people awoke to find the atmosphere more comfortable.

Even colder weather is predicted for Thursday. The change in weather is due to the eastward movement of a strata of cold air, according to the weather forecaster.

KNOWN AS OLDEST RAIL PRESIDENT IN COUNTRY

Frank Moody Mills, Age 95, of South
Falls, South Dakota, With Wife,
Spends Day Here

FORMERLY OF GREENSBURG

Frank Moody Mills of South Falls, South Dakota, said to be the oldest railroad president in the United States, together with Mrs. Mills, spent the day here with Mrs. F.
Ayres.

Mr. Mills, who lived in Greensburg before the Civil War, became acquainted with Mrs. Ayres through the fact that his brother, Col. Mills, married a sister of Mrs. Ayres.

Col. Mills was an officer in the Civil War under General P. A. Hack-leman, his father-in-law, and father of Mrs. Ayres, and was mortally wounded in the same battle at Corinth, Miss., October 3, 1862, in which General Hackleman was killed.

Another brother of Mr. Mills owned the Greensburg News from 1843
to 1846 and Mr. Mills was the "devil" on the paper, which accounts for him returning to Greensburg for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bradon of Greensburg motored to Rushville with Mr. and Mrs. Mills today. Mr.
Bradon is one of the publishers of the News.

Mr. Mills, although ninety-five years of age, is actively engaged in business as head of a large railroad system.

Attempt at Twelve Miles

rence Bennett, 22, who was captured by a posse of farmers last

Bennett failed to reach the funds of the bank but a draft issued by the bank was found on him.

gun shot wounds before he surrendered.

BONDS TO BE ISSUED BY THE SCHOOL CITY

Method To Be Used To Raise Balance Needed To Erect Gym
and Vocational Building

CHEAPEST PLAN TO FOLLOW

Sum Derived From Bond Issue Will
Be Combined With Non-Interest
Bearing Loans

The Rushville city school board has adopted a resolution declaring it to be the intention of the board to issue $40,000 worth of bonds to build a gymnasium and school building in Rushville.

This method will be used to build a high school gymnasium and vocational education building at the corner of Harrison and Eleventh streets instead of the one proposed last spring when more than $25,000 was pledged by basketball fans as non-interest bearing loans.

This step has been decided on as the cheapest course to pursue, and the money derived from the sale of the bonds will be combined with the money that has been pledged as loans and for season tickets, to build the building.

The Rushville Public School Athletic association will be incorporated under the laws of Indiana as a non-profit corporation, as originally planned, to collect the loans. The association will continue to function as long as there are any notes outstanding and will go out of existence when they have all been paid
from the net proceeds of basketball games and other revenue derived from the use of the building.

When the non-interest bearing notes are paid off, the net proceeds from basketball games, other athletic contests and rentals will be devoted to meeting the bonds until they are all paid.

The first bond will not fall due until 1928 and they will be payable at the rate of $2,000 a year.

Notices will be sent out within the next few days to all subscribers to the non-interest bearing stock, asking for one-fourth of their pledge, which fell due May 1. There has been no call for it because plans had not progressed far enough to warrant asking for the money.

The bond issue was decided on as the logical course because the money could be borrowed at a lower rate of interest and in the long run
the people of Rushville would be saved money.

Immediate steps were being taken today to follow the law in advertising the procedure so that no more delay than necessary will be entailed before the contract can be let and the building started.

Space will be reserved under the gymnasium seats to be used for vocational training work which will be installed in the city schools in the future.

NEW PASTOR TO BE INSTALLED

The Rev. Gibson Wilson Will Have
Charge of Shelbyville Ceremony

Several members of the First Presbyterian church will go to Shelbyville Thursday night to witness the installation of the new pastor, the Rev. L. O. Richmond who has recently accepted a call to the Presbyterian church of that city, coming from Columbus, Ohio.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, and moderator of White Water presbytery, will preside over the installation service and deliver the charge to the pastor-elect. The J.
S. E. McMichael of Connersville and Rev. J. R. Bartelmeyer of Greensburg will have part in the program of installation. The meeting is at 7:30 and it is desired that as many members of the Rushville church as possible attend, to extend greetings and good wishes. The usual Thursday night meeting in the local church will not be held.

TWO OPERATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Rue Webb living southwest of the city, and Charles Dill, living north of the city underwent operations for the removal of their tonsils at the Dr. Frank Green hospital this morning.

Expeditions Go Out in Quest of Amundsen-Ellsworth Fliers, Lost in The Arctic

FOOD SUPPLY IS SHORT

(By United Press)

Three searching parties have been arranged to hunt for the missing Amundsen-Ellsworth polar fliers.

The Norwegian government has started the steamer Ingertre toward Spitzbergen, carrying airplanes which will scout over the ice fields.

The American MacMillan expedition scheduled to leave for Etah, Greenland, the end of June, will maintain a lookout for Amundsen.

A third expedition will be led by Jean Charcot, French polar explorer, who is about to leave France for Greenland.

Prominent arctic experts still share the view that Amundsen eventually will be found but it is recalled that his food supply will run out in about another week after which he must rely on what game he can shoot.

Fear Not!—Thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob and he that former thee, O Israel. Fear not; for I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. Isaiah 43:1.

PRAYER:—
“And now Lord what wait I for

A Novel View of Life

Milton O. Reeves, manufacturer and capitalist of Columbus, Ind., and a native citizen of Rush county, had a novel view of life, which was revealed at his funeral services, when his religious views were read at his request. The service was equally as unique as his conception of heaven and hell. There was no eulogy by the pastor of his church, the Unitarian, but a tribute by a friend of a third of a century.

The passages read at his funeral were taken from manuscript written by Mr. Reeves, which he had intended to publish under the title, “There is No Hell, There Never Was a Hell, and There Never Will be a Hell, Therefore, There is no Devil, There Never Was a Devil and Never Will be a Devil.”

Mr. Reeves confessed a belief in God and to God he gave all credit for his success in life in accumulating earthly goods and in rearing a fine family and retaining the respect and love of his wife.

“We were married,” he wrote, “in our eighteenth year and she is still living and well, and loves me with a love that seems to grow and mellow and ripen with age. The greatest joy and pride of my life, and the one thing about which I am truly boastful is that I have so lived and conducted myself that her love and respect for me has not waned or abated in the least.”

He paid tribute to the loyalty of his four children, the eldest of whom, a daughter, died in her thirty-third year, and expressed his appreciation of his business associates.

“All of these things have come to me almost directly from the hand of God,” it was his confessed belief, “I am sure no credit is due me for at least most of these good things, because you may recite each one of them from the beginning to the end of the list and for the most part they seemed to be all prepared for me when I entered an appearance.”

“Believing all this, it will surely be understood why I naturally held that great Infinite One in such reverence, esteem and regard. He has been immeasurably good to be.”

It is little wonder, then, that the Columbus Republican should refer to Mr. Reeves as “a most beloved man of the community,” for a man with such a philosophy of life, although it may not prescribe to creeds and beliefs that are accepted by many, could not be other than beloved of his fellowmen.

There is no wonder, either, that such a man should not prosper in life and have some of the blessings that the world affords. He apparently nursed no grudges; he was grateful for what life had given him and to God he gave just credit for whatever material success he had.

European Peace

Peace in Europe is regarded a fact, the headlines tell us, following an agreement between France and England on a pact program, under the terms of which England's great war strength is thrown behind a four-power pact, which guarantees the inviolability of the Rhine frontier as delimited by the Versailles treaty. Other participants, besides France, will be Belgium and Germany, providing the latter agrees to the conditions.

The news will be viewed with skepticism by most people in the United States, although no one would welcome peace in Europe any more than Americans.

The United States has been unjustly accused of delaying peace in Europe by adhering to its tradition of aloofness and avoiding foreign entanglements.

If this means peace, this new pact, then all power to it, because America, made up of peace-loving people, finds no pleasure in seeing her friends across the sea continually embroiled in war-like gestures.

America's participation in European affairs to any further extent than she has been engaged would not have hastened peace. It was a tangle that only Europeans could unravel. If they have succeeded, America will rejoice with them.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—When the Cook county commissioners refused a few days ago to turn over the state's share of the county taxes to the treasurer of Illinois, they took the first step toward what may prove to be the greatest change this country has known since big cities began to grow.

The state treasurer, naturally will sue. And since a federal constitutional principle is involved—

Ah, a word as to that principle! It's the crux of the whole thing.

ILLINOIS was distracted for legislative purposes long before Chicago—Chicago and Cook county are the same thing—had attained its present population. On the basis of its then number of inhabitants it was given adequate representation at Springfield.

Chicago grew, however, out of all proportion to the rest of the state. Out of all the citizens of Illinois, nearly half are Chicagoans.

They pay more than half the state taxes. But their representation in the legislature hasn't been increased by a single seat. Finally they demanded a redistricting of the state, on an up-to-date population basis. Rural members of the legislature, heavily outnumbering the city representatives, turned the proposition down.

THEREUPON, “Cook county,” said the commissioners, “is being taxed without representation—without due representation, at any rate. This is unconstitutional. By violating the constitution the legislature has invalidated itself. We repudiate taxtion imposed and laws made by an illegal body.”

Well, as previously remarked, the state treasurer will sue, of course, probably in the state courts.

But, a federal constitutional principle being involved, the commissioners doubtless will get the case before a federal judge. There will be appeals, but both sides will be in a hurry, the treasurer for his money and the commissioners to vindicate their position.

It will be a litigation well worth pushing ahead. In short order it will be before the supreme court in Washington.

NOW, suppose Chicago wins. It will mean a revolution, nothing less. Not a big city in the country but in Chicago's fix.

New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, New Orleans, Minneapolis, St. Paul—all the rest—all in the same boat!

Not one but is under rural domination. The country is predominantly rural. But it is rural governed in every single state.

It looked as if this might go on forever. The situation could be changed only by the votes of rural legislators and they wouldn't vote that way.

Chicago, however, has thought up a method of attacking the problem from a new angle—the judicial instead of the legislative one. It may work.

If so, it's inevitable that every center of population which hitherto has suffered under the misrule of those who, at best, knew nothing of metropolitan conditions, and, at worst, positively enjoyed playing horse with city slickerdom, will follow the example of the community-by-the-lake.

Then look out for some mighty rapid changes in a lot of laws!

A motion picture story of a decidedly different sort is promised for the Princess theatre when King Vidor's “Wife of the Centaur” opens today for an engagement of two days.

Adapted from the sensational novel by Cyril Hume, the picture tells, rather than the typical love story, the story of a man with many loves; a man who hates himself for his infidelity, but who can not resist temptation.

That every man, like the centaur of mythology, is “half man and half beast” is the theory on which Hume based his story. The “centaur” played by John Gilbert, is a romantic, picturesque figure in whom conflicting emotions are always struggling. He holds a high idealistic love for one woman, but cannot resist the attraction of others.

Eleanor Boardman and Aileen Pringle are cast in the leading feminine roles, as the two women with whom the “centaur” is in love.

“Her Husband's Secrets”

Picture fans who have seen racy, jazzy melodramas and serio-comedies a plenty during the past few months will do well to visit the Castle theatre today to view Frank Lloyd's “Her Husband's Secret.” This, First National adaptation of the May Edginton Saturday Evening Post story, “Judgment,” is decidedly different from anything we have seen in a good time and—delightfully different.

It is a drama, pure and simple, but what a drama.

Here is a story which should appeal to all classes of picture lovers; it should entertain the younger generation of the present, and father and mother and grandpa and grandma can enjoy it equally.

The film relates in an unusually impressive manner, the sacrifices of parents who give their only children to the love of others, the natural spirit of protection of their loved ones and more than just that—a double romance, one with a mercenary object in view, the other one of faithful devotion and of giving rather than receiving.

Beauty lies in the care a woman bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to her sex, which drag her down and leave telltale traces upon her countenance. Sparkling eyes, the elastic step and a clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. Distressed expressions, a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude, headaches and mental depression are the telltale symptoms of women's ailments. Women so troubled should not lose a day in taking Lydia E. Walker Unable to Fight Greb, and Bout is Postponed

New York, June 10—Postponement of the bouts between Harry Wills and Charlie Weinert and Harry Greb and Mickey Walker was announced today. The promoters were given the permission of the New York boxing commission when it was learned that Walker has an infected foot and will have to stop training for a week or ten days.

The bouts probably will be held at the Polo Ground on July 1, 2, or 3.

The Italian hospital committee, staging the bouts, promised to get Walker's signature to an agreement to fight Dave Shade and present it to the commission at its next meeting on Friday.

New York—Making her first appearance of the season, Mrs. Molly Mallory, six times tennis champion, defeated Englewood Field Club's invitation tournament.

Getting The "Breaks"

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 10—Bad breaks were vital factors in the get away of the major league pennant races and they will have much to do with the ultimate outcome of the championship season.

The "breaks" to baseball are what "racing luck" is to the turf. It is an intangible something that is just as well covered by the word luck. In baseball, when a team is getting the "breaks" everything works well. On the track the favorite wins with "racing luck" when he gets a good start, has no interference and gets a good ride.

At various times during the early season the New York Giants had Henie Groh and Frank Frisch on the bench with injuries and some pitchers with sore arms. Such a reduction in playing strength might be construed as a bad break, but the players on the other clubs insisted that the National League champions got away to such a flying start because they were getting all the breaks.

"Everything the Giants try works for them," a National League manager said recently. "They hit in just the right place on the hit and run. When they bunt, it hangs on the foul line and when they try for an extra base they make it by an inch." To a layman that all sounds like the Giants were playing good baseball. But the baseball man says they're getting the breaks.

The accidents suffered by the Giants which caused McGraw to play a first baseman on second and use a veteran catcher on first base were minimized because the club has such a wealth of reserve material that the missing stars could be replaced.

It is a legend that no team can avoid bad breaks and that it's fair enough if the good and bad breaks come in the same proportion. If there is any equality, the Cincinnati Reds should be in for a long run of good fortune. Last year the pennant chances of the team were blasted by a long string of accidents to players that reduced the playing strength of the team at least fifty per cent. This year the club has been pursued by the same bad luck and it is not making the bid for the championship that was expected.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Sammy Hale, Athletic third baseman singled in the ninth inning and drove in the run that beat the Tigers, 4 to 3.

Bill Terry hit a homer with two on and gave the Giants a 9 to 7 victory over the Cubs.

Jesse Barnes, Braves pitcher, won his own game by a single in the eleventh inning with the bases filled, scoring two runs and beating the Pirates, 7 to 4.

Rogers Hornsby scored three runs and drove in one, helping his Cardinals beat the Robins 5 to 1.

McNulty's double in the eighth inning drove in the run that beat the Tigers, 4 to 3.

You Should Select a Refrigerator with Care

The health of your family depends to a large degree on having a clean, sanitary, cold storage place for foods. When you select a refrigerator investigate the following three points.

1. INSULATION. The insulation is to keep heat from entering the refrigerator and cold from passing out.
2. CLEANLINESS. Any place in which foods are stored should be kept spotlessly clean.
3. CONVENIENCE. Not only convenience of storage but also convenience of cleaning.

Point One—The White Frost Refrigerator is doubly insulated. It consists of two steel jackets with an air space between, permanently and perfectly sealed. This dead air space in itself makes almost complete insulation. But in addition the White Frost is doubly insulated with ground cork, the best material known to refrigerator engineers for insulating purposes.

Point Two—The White Frost Refrigerator is the only one in the world that is built in this convenient round form. The interior is enamelled and you will note that there are no crevices or corners in which impurities or dirt can lodge.

Point Three—The circular shelves that you see in the picture revolve. Thus, if you want an article that is in the back of the refrigerator you do not have to remove articles in the front or run the risk of upsetting them—you merely rotate the shelf until the article you want is in front.

This wonderful convenience, found in no other refrigerator, makes available every inch of room. In the old-fashioned square refrigerator much of the space was not used because it was so difficult to reach.

The White Frost is Built for Service

Solidly constructed of enamelled metal the White Frost will last for years. It cannot warp, it cannot rust, it cannot fail in any way.

When you select a White Frost Refrigerator you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have chosen the best the market offers and you will be pleasantly surprised to find that the White Frost costs less than cork insulated old style refrigerators of equal capacity.

The White Frost is made in two sizes—the Bungalow for smaller families and apartments, and the Household for larger homes.

ROYSE AND HARRIS SENT TO PRISON

Samuel Royse, Third One of Trio
Arrested Near Mays Sunday, Said
Not to be Implicated

John Royse and Allen Harris Sentenced For 2 to 21 Years on Conspiracy Trial

John Royse, age 38, and Allen Harris, age 23, Carthage men arrested early Sunday morning at Mays, each pleaded guilty this morning in the circuit court on the charge of conspiracy to commit a felony, and each was fined $25 and costs and given sentence of from 2 to 14 years.

Samuel Royse, the third member of the arrested party, was permitted to go without bail, pending a further investigation as to the extent in which he was implicated with the other two.

Sheriff Hunt was preparing this afternoon to take Harris to the reformatory at Pendleton, to begin serving his sentence, and Royse will serve his term at the state prison in Michigan City.

These two men shouldered the blame for the affair, according to the officers. Royse, who was released pending an investigation, stated that he was home when the other two were at Mays stealing gasoline from Jesse Wilson, and when abandoned their machine, they went to Royse to borrow his machine.

According to the story told the officers, Royse would not let them have his machine, as they told him that the car in which they were riding would not run, and they wanted to borrow his car to bring it in to Carthage. It will be recalled that when the men were caught at the Wilson home, they ran and abandoned their car, and according to the story told the officers, they went to Royse to obtain his machine and go after the car they had left.

Royse wouldn't give them his car, he said, but considered to drive it for them, and the three came into Mays early Sunday morning, and were caught by a posse waiting along the roadside. The men all agreed that Royse was not connected with the affair, only in the part of being innocently trapped.

He also did not carry a weapon, but the other two did. The portion of the still was found in his house, although he said it belonged to his brother, John Royse, who also admitted this, stating that he had served a year in Ohio for bootlegging.

In the meantime officers will conduct an investigation concerning the conduct of Royse. Several Carthage people made recommendations that his reputation was good, and these facts also will be proved before final disposition of his case is made.

Rehearing is Denied

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 10—The supreme court today denied a petition for a rehearing in the case of John D. Farlow vs the state of Indiana, appealed from the Rush circuit court.

The case against John D. Farlow, Anderson township farmer, has been in the supreme court for more than two years. He was found guilty in the local circuit court on the charge of arson, and sentenced to serve a term in prison. LOCKJAW FATAL TO 8 YEAR OLD FOLEY BOY

Youth Living Near Clarksburg Dies
From Effects of Wound Caused by
Stable Fork

Jason Clarence Foley, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Foley, died Tuesday afternoon shortly after four o'clock at the Dr. Sexton hospital in this city, where he was brought the day before suffering with a severe case of lock-jaw.

Little hopes for his recovery were held out at the hospital from the time that he arrived. The little boy two weeks ago was playing around the stable at their home, northeast of Clarksburg, when he stepped on a rusty fork, with one of the prongs piercing his foot. The lock-jaw complications developed, and as a last resort he was brought to the hospital here Monday afternoon.

The body was removed this morning to the family home, located near the Wesleyan chapel, northeast of Clarksburg, and services will be held at the church probably Thursday afternoon, but the time was not definitely decided upon today.

The child was one of 13 children of Mr. and Mrs. Foley, two of whom preceded him in death, leaving ten brothers and sisters and the parents as the survivors.

LIBRARY TO OBSERVE "HOME COMING WEEK"

Persons Having Books Overdue Will
be Permitted to Return Them
Without Paying Fines

TO CONTINUE ALL NEXT WEEK

A "Home Coming Week" was announced today by the Rushville public library. It will be held next week and during that time no fines will be charged for overdue books.

The "Home coming party" will not be restricted to the hours the library is open, but will be continuous, twenty-four hours a day, every day in the week.

A large box to hold the books will be placed outside the door at the north entrance of the court house and every person who has a book that is past due at the library, may drop it in the box without making any report to the librarian and their record will be clear.

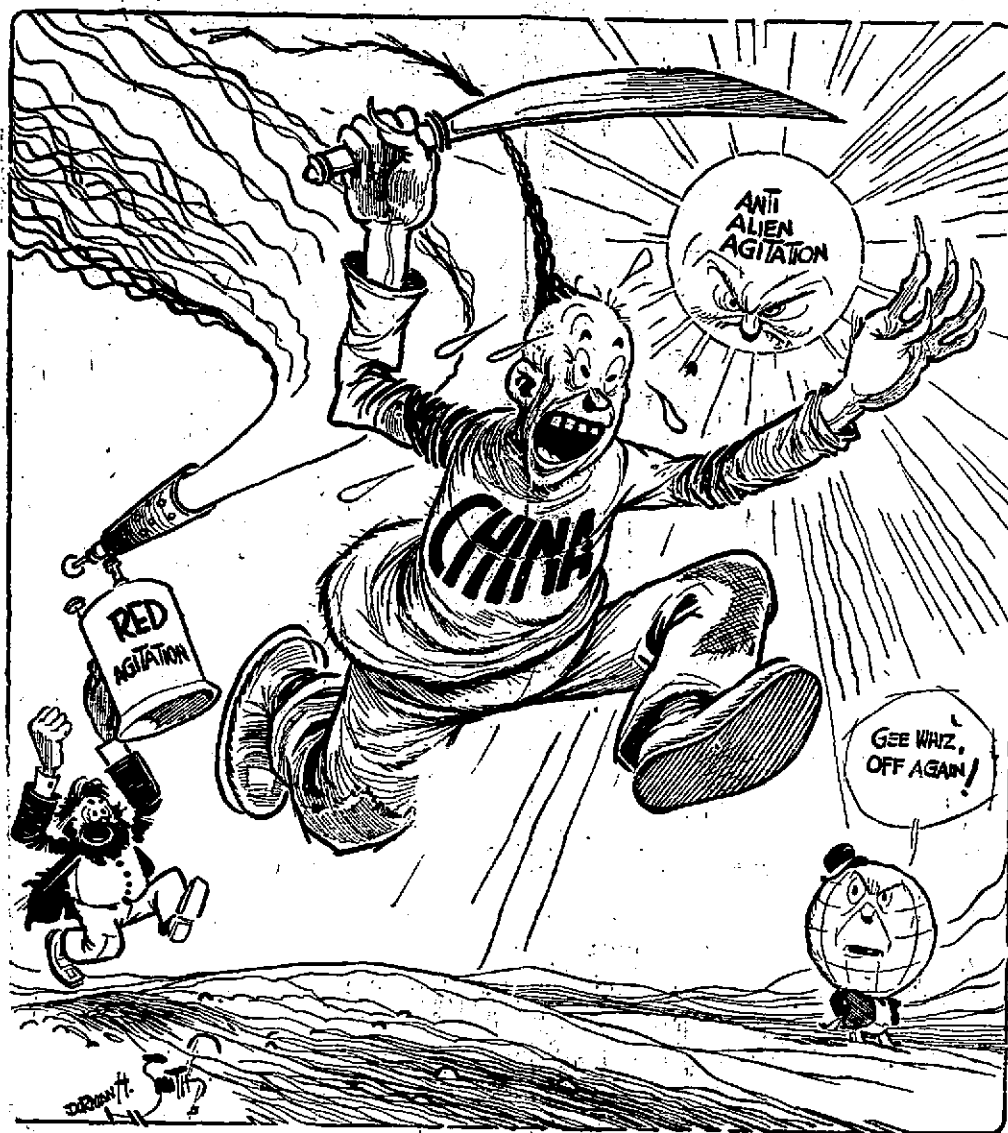

Parents are urged to see that children return books during this period, if they are past due. Children are the worst offenders, it is said, because they are careless and in so many instances parents do not insist on them returning books to the library.

Miss Mary Sleeth, city librarian, stated that this will be positively the last opportunity for any library patrons to return books without paying a fine, and for this reason it is regarded as advisable to take advantage of the opportunity.

Without Results

(By United Press)

Washington, June 10—The Canton-American hospital at Canton has been struck by shells in the fighting between Yunnanese and Cantonese troops, Consul General Jenkins reported to the state department today.

Jenkins has protested against the firing on foreigners although none has been hurt. American women and children have moved from the danger zone on Jenkins' advice, who has warned all foreigners to avoid the fighting area.

Describing the progress of the civil war, the department on the basis of Jenkins' report made the following announcement today:

"Firing continued with growing intensity, the opposing troops firing at each other across the waterway, dividing the city proper from Honan Island. Gun boats loyal to the government frequently run through this waterway."

Warning has been radioed to sea to other boats to shun Shanghai.

French Premier Uses An Airplane to Reach Front

(Copyright, 1925, by U. P.)

Premier Painleve of France today inaugurated a new era in statesmanship.

Dashing out of Toulouse, soon after dawn by airplane, he soared forth to Morocco to obtain first hand information on the French campaign against the Rifians.

A. L. Bradford, United Press Paris manager accompanied the premier to Toulouse, and will follow him by airplane to the Moroccan front.

Before stepping into the airplane that is now bearing him to the war front, the French premier outlined to Bradford, in an interview, his present policy as to Morocco. He wants peace in Morocco but only after Abdel Krim has ceased stirring the Moslem world against France.

Premier Painleve also revealed that he wants and expects a Franco-Spanish accord which will be prepared to tell Krim what peace terms will be acceptable. He proposed a joint blockade against arms and food supplies to the Rifians.

INTEREST CENTERS IN GROUP BANK MEETING

Bankers Will be Called on to Take
Stand Regarding Iowa Plan to

LOCAL BANKERS ARE GOING

Rushville banks, as well as other banks in Rush county, will be represented at the group meeting of the Indiana Bankers association at the Amuse-U park west of Greensburg Thursday, when the question of endorsing the Iowa plan for protection against bank robberies will be considered.

Every other group in the state has approved the project, which has reduced the bank holdups in Iowa, and great interest is being shown throughout the state in the probable action of the local group.

Some time ago, the Iowa plan was first proposed, Rushville bankers expressed themselves as having little faith in the plan to arm deputy sheriffs to protect banks, on the theory that they would never be available when most needed.

J. V. Carpenter of Brazil, president of the Indiana association, is very enthusiastic over the plan, however. He is quoted as saying that "We intend to make it hot for bank bandits in a very short time."

"The Carbon bank robbery Monday, the fourth in Indiana this month, in which the bandits have escaped in every case, emphasizes the need for immediate action to curb banditry," Carpenter said.

"All but one group of the Indiana Bankers Association has adopted the Iowa plan which has proved over 90 percent successful. Organization of vigilance committees radiating from each center and located so as to intercept escape of bandits will soon check banditry in Indiana."

Unseasonably Cold Weather To Con-

In sharp contrast to the killing heat of last week, Rush county was shivering in unseasonably cold weather today. The drop in temperature came during the night and this morning people awoke to find the atmosphere more comfortable.

Even colder weather is predicted for Thursday. The change in weather is due to the eastward movement of a strata of cold air, according to the weather forecaster.

Frank Moody Mills of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, said to be the oldest railroad president in the United States, together with Mrs. Mills, spent the day here with Mrs. F. C. Ayres.

Col. Mills was an officer in the Civil War under General P. A. Hackleman, his father-in-law, and father of Mrs. Ayres, and was mortally wounded in the same battle at Corinth, Miss., October 3, 1862, in which General Hackleman was killed.

Another brother of Mr. Mills owned the Greensburg News from 1843 to 1846 and Mr. Mills was the "devil" on the paper, which accounts for him returning to Greensburg for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Mills today. Mr. Bradon is one of the publishers of the News.

Mr. Mills, although ninety-five years of age, is actively engaged in business as head of a large railroad system.

BONDS TO BE ISSUED BY THE SCHOOL CITY

Method To Be Used To Raise Bal-
ance Needed To Erect Gym
and Vocational Building

CHEAPEST PLAN TO FOLLOW

Sum Derived From Bond Issue Will
Be Combined With Non-Interest
Bearing Loans

The Rushville city school board has adopted a resolution declaring it to be the intention of the board to issue $40,000 worth of bonds to build a gymnasium and school building in Rushville.

This method will be used to build a high school gymnasium and vocational education building at the corner of Harrison and Eleventh streets, instead of the one proposed last spring when more than $25,000 was pledged by basketball fans as non-interest bearing loans.

This step has been decided on as the cheapest course to pursue, and the money derived from the sale of the bonds will be combined with the money that has been pledged as loans and for season tickets, to build the building.

The Rushville Public School Athletic association will be incorporated under the laws of Indiana as a non-profit corporation, as originally planned, to collect the loans. The association will continue to function as long as there are any notes outstanding, and will go out of existence when they have all been paid from the net proceeds of basketball games and other revenue derived from the use of the building.

When the non-interest bearing notes are paid off, the net proceeds from basketball games, other athletic contests and rentals will be devoted to meeting the bonds until they are all paid.

The first bond will not fall due until 1928 and they will be payable at the rate of $2,000 a year.

Notices will be sent out within the next few days to all subscribers to the non-interest bearing stock, asking for one-fourth of their pledge, which fell due May 1. There has been no call for it because plans had not progressed far enough to warrant asking for the money.

The bond issue was decided on as the logical course because the money could be borrowed at a lower rate of interest and in the long run the people of Rushville would be saved money.

Immediate steps were being taken today to follow the law in advertising the procedure so that no more delay than necessary will be entailed before the contract can be let and the building started.

Space will be reserved under the gymnasium seats to be used for vocational training work which will be installed in the city schools in the future.

NEW PASTOR TO BE INSTALLED

The Rev. Gibson Wilson Will Have
Charge of Shelbyville Ceremony

Several members of the First Presbyterian church will go to Shelbyville Thursday night to witness the installation of the new pastor, the Rev. L. O. Richmond who has recently accepted a call to the Presbyterian church of that city, coming from Columbus, Ohio.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, and moderator of White Water presbytery, will preside over the installation service and deliver the charge to the pastor-elect. The J. S. E. McMichael of Connersville and Rev. J. R. Bartelmeyer of Greensburg will have part in the program of installation. The meeting is at 7:30 and it is desired that as many members of the Rushville church as possible attend, to extend greetings and good wishes. The usual Thursday night meeting in the local church will not be held.

HERE ARE THE FACTS

1. Approximately one-half of the bituminous mines not in operation due to the present below-cost-of-production prices. This curtailment of supply will effect all markets; bituminous directly, and anthracite indirectly.
2. The anthracite wage scale terminates in August which means a controversy—and perhaps a strike. This uncertainty will effect all markets; anthracite directly, and bituminous indirectly.

FESTIVAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Modern Woodman Event at Memorial Park Well Patronized

The festival held at Memorial park Tuesday night, sponsored by the Modern Woodman lodge of this city, was largely attended, and several concessions were operated. The amount of money cleared by the lodge had not been tabulated today, but it was estimated that a fair sized sum was realized.
Inability to provide a piano, prevented the appearance of an orchestra that was supposed to have played, and the drill team also failed to put on their exhibition. The proceeds obtained from the festival will be used to defray transportation expenses of the local drill team to the national meeting of the lodge, to be held the later part of his month in Milwaukee.

A Novel View of Life

Milton O. Reeves, manufacturer and capitalist of Columbus, Ind., and a native citizen of Rush county, had a novel view of life, which was revealed at his funeral services, when his religious views were read at his request. The service was equally as unique as his conception of heaven and hell. There was no eulogy by the pastor of his church, the Unitarian, but a tribute by a friend of a third of a century.

The passages read at his funeral were taken from manuscript written by Mr. Reeves, which he had intended to publish under the title, "There is No Hell, There Never Was a Hell, and There Never Will be a Hell. Therefore, There is no Devil, There Never Was a Devil and Never Will be a Devil."

Mr. Reeves confessed a belief in God and to God he gave all credit for his success in life in accumulating earthly goods and in rearing a fine family and retaining the respect and love of his wife.

"We were married," he wrote, "in our eighteenth year and she is still living and well, and loves me with a love that seems to grow and mellow and ripen with age. The greatest joy and pride of my life, and the one thing about which I am truly boastful is that I have so lived and conducted myself that her love and respect for me has not waned or abated in the least."

He paid tribute to the loyalty of his four children, the eldest of whom, a daughter, died in her thirty-third year, and expressed his appreciation of his business associates.

"All of these things have come to me almost directly from the hand of God," it was his confessed belief. "I am sure no credit is due me for at least most of these good things, because you may recite each one of them from the beginning to the end of the list and for the most part they seemed to be all prepared for me when I entered an appearance."

"Believing all this, it will surely be understood why I naturally hold that great Infinite One in such reverence, esteem and regard. He has been immeasurably good to be."

It is little wonder, then, that the Columbus Republican should refer to Mr. Reeves as "a most beloved man of the community," for a man with such a philosophy of life, although it may not prescribe to creeds and beliefs that are accepted by many, could not be other than beloved of his fellowmen.

There is no wonder, either, that such a man should not prosper in life and have some of the blessings that the world affords. He apparently nursed no grudges; he was grateful for what life had given him and to God he gave just credit for whatever material success he had.

European Peace

Peace in Europe is regarded a fact, the headlines tell us, following an agreement between France and England on a pact program, under the terms of which England's great war strength is thrown behind a four-power pact, which guarantees the inviolability of the Rhine frontiers as delimited by the Versailles treaty. Other participants, besides France, will be Belgium and Germany, providing the latter agrees to the conditions.

The news will be viewed with skepticism by most people in the United States, although no one would welcome peace in Europe any more than Americans.

The United States has been unjustly accused of delaying peace in Europe by adhering to its tradition of aloofness and avoiding foreign entanglements.

If this means peace, this new pact, then all power to it, because America, made up of peace-loving people, finds no pleasure in seeing her friends across the sea continually embroiled in war-like gestures.

America's participation in European affairs to any further extent than she has been engaged would not have hastened peace. It was a tangle that only Europeans could unravel. If they have succeeded, America will rejoice with them.

Stewart's Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—When the Cook county commissioners refused a few days ago to turn over the state's share of the county taxes to the treasurer of Illinois, they took the first step toward what may prove to be the greatest change this country has known since big cities began to grow.

The state's treasurer, naturally will sue. And since a federal constitutional principle is involved—Ab, a word as to that principle! It's the crux of the whole thing.

ILLINOIS was districted for legislative purposes long before Chicago—Chicago and Cook county are the same thing—had attained its present population. On the basis of its then number of inhabitants it was given adequate representation at Springfield.

Chicago grew, however, out of all proportion to the rest of the state. Out of all the citizens of Illinois, nearly half are Chicagoans. They pay more than half the state taxes. But their representation in the legislature hasn't been increased by a single seat.

Finally they demanded a redistricting of the state, on an up-to-date population basis. Rural members of the legislature, heavily outnumbering the city representatives, turned the proposition down.

THEREUPON, "Cook county," said the commissioners, "is being taxed without representation—without due representation, at any rate. This is unconstitutional. By violating the constitution the legislature has invalidated itself. We repudiate tax-

tion imposed and laws made by an illegal body.

Previously, remarked the state treasurer will sue, of course, probably in the state courts.

But a federal constitutional principle being involved, the commissioners doubtless will get the case before a federal judge. There will be appeals, but both sides will be in a hurry, the treasurer for his money and the commissioners to vindicate their position.

It will be a litigation well worth pushing ahead. In short order it will be before the supreme court in Washington.

NOW, suppose Chicago wins. It will mean a revolution, nothing less. Not a big city in the country but in Chicago's six.

New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City, New Orleans, Minneapolis, St. Paul—all the rest—all in the same boat!

Not one but is under rural domination. The country is predominantly urban, as census figures show. But it is rurally governed in every single state.

It looked as if this might go on forever. The situation could be changed only by the votes of rural legislators and they wouldn't vote that way.

Chicago, however, has thought up a method of attacking the problem from a new angle—the judicial instead of the legislative one. It may work.

If so, it's inevitable that every center of population which hitherto has suffered under the misrule of those who, at best, knew nothing of metropolitan conditions, and, at worst, positively enjoyed playing horse with city slickers, will follow the example of the community-by-the-lake.

Then look out for some mighty rapid changes in a lot of laws!

A motion picture story of a decidedly different sort is promised for the Princess theatre when King Vidor's "Wife of the Centaur" opens today for an engagement of two days.

Adapted from the sensational novel by Cyril Hume, the picture tells, rather than the typical love story, the story of a man with many loves; a man who hates himself for his infidelity, but who can not resist temptation.

That every man, like the centaur of mythology, is "half man and half beast" is the theory on which Hume based his story. The "centaur" played by John Gilbert, is a romantic, picturesque figure in whom conflicting emotions are always struggling. He holds a high idealistic love for one woman, but cannot resist the attraction of others.

Eleanor Boardman and Aileen Pringle are cast in the leading feminine roles, as the two women with whom the "centaur" is in love.

"Her Husband's Secrets"

Picture fans who have seen racy, jazzy melodramas and serio-comedies a plenty during the past few months will do well to visit the Castle-theatre today to view Frank Lloyd's "Her Husband's Secret." Walker Unable to Fight Greb, and Bout is Postponed

New York, June 10—Postponement of the bouts between Harry Wills and Charlie Weinert and Harry Greb and Mickey Walker was announced today. The promoters were given the permission of the New York boxing commission when it was learned that Walker has an infected foot and will have to stop training for a week or ten days.

The bouts probably will be held at the Polo Ground on July 1, 2, or 3.

The Italian hospital committee, staging the bouts, promised to get Walker's signature to an agreement to fight Dave Shade and present it to the commission at its next meeting on Friday.

Getting The "Breaks"

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 10—Bad breaks were vital factors in the get away off the major league pennant races and they will have much to do with the ultimate outcome of the championship season.

The "breaks" to baseball are what "racing luck" is to the turf. It is an intangible something that is just as well covered by the word luck. In baseball, when a thing is getting the "breaks" everything works well. On the track the favorite wins with "racing luck" when he gets a good start, has no interference and gets a good ride.

At various times during the early season the New York Giants had Henrie Groh and Frank Frisch on the bench with injuries and some pitchers with sore arms. Such a reduction in playing strength might be construed as a bad break, but the players on the other clubs insisted that the National League champions got away to such a flying start because they were getting all the breaks.

"Everything the Giants try works for them," a National League manager said recently. "They hit in just the right place on the hit and run. When they bunt, it hangs on the foul line and when they try for an extra base they make it by an inch." To a layman that all sounds like the Giants were playing good baseball. But the baseball man says they're getting the breaks.

The accidents suffered by the Giants which caused McGraw to play a first baseman on second and use a veteran catcher on first base were minimized because the club has such a wealth of reserve material that the missing stars could be replaced.

It is a legend that no team can avoid bad breaks and that it's fair enough if the good and bad breaks come in the same proportion. If there is any equality, the Cincinnati Reds should be in for a long run of good fortune. Last year the pennant chances of the team were blasted by a long string of accidents to players that reduced the playing strength of the team at least fifty per cent. This year the club has been pursued by the same bad luck and it is not making the bid for the championship that was expected.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Sammy Hale, Athletic third baseman singled in the ninth inning and drove in the run that beat the Tigers, 4 to 3.

Bill Terry hit a homer with two on and gave the Giants a 9 to 7 victory over the Cubs.

Caveny's homer in the seventh inning with one runner on enabled the Reds to beat the Phillies 3 to 1.

Jesse Barnes, Braves pitcher, won his own game by a single in the eleventh inning with the bases filled, scoring two runs and beating the Pirates, 7 to 4.

Rogers Hornsby scored three runs and drove in one, helping his Cardinals beat the Robins 5 to 1.

McNulty's double in the eighth inning drove in the run that beat the Tigers, 4 to 3.

Insurance Man Tells On Friend

"He suffered considerably from gas in stomach and colic attacks, and at times was very yellow." His doctors diagnosed his ailment as gall bladder trouble and that an operation was necessary. Some one persuaded him to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. Since taking it one year ago he tells me he has been able to eat anything. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement

You Should Select a Refrigerator with Care

The health of your family depends to a large degree on having a clean, sanitary, cold storage place for foods. When you select a refrigerator investigate the following three points.

1. INSULATION. The insulation is to keep heat from entering the refrigerator and cold from passing out.
2. CLEANLINESS. Any place in which foods are stored should be kept spotlessly clean.
3. CONVENIENCE. Not only convenience of storage but also convenience of cleaning.

Point One—The White Frost Refrigerator is doubly insulated. It consists of two steel jackets with an air space between, permanently and perfectly sealed. This dead air space in itself makes almost complete insulation. But in addition the White Frost is doubly insulated with ground cork, the best material known to refrigerator engineers for insulating purposes.

Point Two—The White Frost Refrigerator is the only one in the world that is built in this convenient round form. The interior is enameled and you will note that there are no crevices or corners in which impurities or dirt can lodge.

Point Three—The circular shelves that you see in the picture revolve. Thus, if you want an article that is in the back of the refrigerator you do not have to remove articles in the front or run the risk of upsetting them—you merely rotate the shelf until the article you want is in front.

This wonderful convenience, found in no other refrigerator, makes available every inch of room. In the old-fashioned square refrigerator much of the space was not used because it was so difficult to reach.

The White Frost is Built For Service

Solidly constructed of enameled metal the White Frost will last for years. It cannot warp, it cannot rust, it cannot fail in any way.

When you select a White Frost Refrigerator you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have chosen the best the market offers and you will be pleasantly surprised to find that the White Frost costs less than cork insulated old style refrigerators of equal capacity.

The White Frost is made in two sizes—the Rangelow for smaller families and apartments, and the Household for larger homes.
